

PLAGARISM

It is WRONG to copy someone's work without giving them proper credit!

Author's have INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS for their work. It is unlawful to use someone's literary works unless you give them appropriate credit!

Plagiarism is addressed in the student handbook and can result in loss of credit for an assignment, parents may be contacted, as well as other more serious consequences.

Always:

---When using another person's information, read it thoroughly, then summarize or paraphrase using your own vocabulary.

---Place quotations around everything that is taken directly from the text. Use the appropriate bibliographic citations.
